Commissioner Stanek moved to approve the minutes of the June 22, 2021 Regular Meeting.

Manager Jody Norman gave a brief administrative update:

The current bid servicing the Garden Rest Stop has quit, for the time being a DCRC employee will be filling in until October, 7 days a week. Mowing on the MDOT system is complete, the current MDOT budget is mostly spent at this time. Jody hopes this will change in the Fall. At the DCRC, chip sealing started last week. District one finished today (7/8/21). Chip Bids for next year on Monday, 7/19/21. At the old Wells Garage, the bids for slab removal are due this Friday per Rory Mattson. The new pit at Moss Lake is moving along nicely, the agreement should be complete in 4-5 weeks. Jody has been speaking with Delta County about the possibility of the sharing a portion of their COVID relief funds with the DCRC. Per, John Malnar, Delta County Liaison, there will be a meeting on July 26th to discuss the funds.

It was moved by Commissioner Asselin, seconded by Commissioner Stanek to approve Bills Payable Voucher No. 2577 in the amount of $705,436.80 and Payroll Voucher No. 69135 in the amount of $87,685.75 as presented and reviewed.
