4.	PRESENTATION(S)	There was no presentation scheduled for this meeting.	None
5.	OLD BUSINESS:
	A. Hazard Mitigation Action Items	No action was taken on action items. Paul Geyer to continue to bring them forward at future meetings for discussion.	No action taken.
	B. Update on HMEP Grant	Paul Geyer reported that all new and updated 302 Off-Site Response Plans (OSRPs) have been submitted to the State along with our support grant request for reimbursement for our TIER II Manager program subscription costs. He also reported that our 302 sites have been identified in the County's new I am Responding (IaR) application and OSRP's have been uploaded to the site so that all responding fire departments can access those plans and TIER II information right from their mobile device.	302 OSRP's & Support Grant Request submitted to State for HMEP Grant and OSRP's added to the IaR App.
6.	NEW BUSINESS:
	A. Fedex Facility	Paul Geyer reported that the Fedex Facility located on N. 30 th St. behind the Jail facility provided hazard chemical information recently to OSF St. Francis Hospital, Escanaba Public Safety and the EM office. He stated that they provided this information as occasionally they have hazardous material that may be damaged in transit that remains onsite at their facility until it can be removed. They provided pictures and access instructions as to where the material may be stored on site along with site diagram and fire evacuation routes. This material was also added to the IaR app for first responder access.	Information filed and added to the IaR App.
	B. November Meeting – Hold or Cancel	There was discussion on whether to hold the November scheduled meeting. Tate Thompson motioned with support from Jeff Lampi to cancel the scheduled November 2024 meeting. Motion was approved unanimously.	November 2024 meeting Canceled.

		involved with the Gladstone Schools/GPSD Full-Scale Active Assailant exercise on August 20 th .
	RTF	No one was in attendance from the RTF. Paul Geyer reported that the RTF was also heavily involved with the exercise on August 20 th . Many lessons were learned and training and future exercises will be in the works.	N/A
	Roundtable	Paul Geyer reported that he is meeting soon with the DSISD Superintendents and Principals to discuss various topics including temporary barrier devices on doors, the “I Love U Guys” Foundation Standard Response Protocol (SRP) and Standard Reunification Method (SRM), Digital Threat Assessments and other emergency response planning. Geyer also reported that he will be attending a 2-day Pediatric Disaster Response & Emergency Preparedness training next week put on by Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX) Emergency Services Training Institute (ESTI). This course is being sponsored by the Regional Health Care Coalition. He also stated that he would be providing a presentation on all-hazards emergency preparedness to the U.P. Fall Water Conference in October that is put on by the American Water Works Association, Michigan Section. Doug Leisenring reported that he had attended the recent training for the “I Love U Guys” SRP and SRM and that his hope is that all the local districts can come together on this common protocol and method. Ashleigh Young reported that there will be a Part 139 Delta County Airport AEP/ASP Review meeting on October 24, 2024 from 10am to Noon that many in the room are invited and encouraged to attend. This meeting is an annual requirement for the Airport to have with their various first responder partners. Gerald Pirkola reported that Escanaba City has been approached by an EV Battery Charging type company that is looking to put in a charging station in the city. He stated that he would keep the LEPC group advised on it as it moves forward. This comment was in addition to general discussion on a question posed by Jim Lundberg as to Lithium Batteries and how they are handled at the Landfill and/or throughout our area and the probability that fire and/or other hazards may be in our future dependent upon how that is done.	N/A Information only.
9.	MEETING ADJOURNMENT	Doug Leisenring motioned with support from Kelli vanGinhoven to adjourn at 10:29am. Motion was approved unanimously.	Meeting Adjourned.
